

I oppose the proposed 24/7 recording of station programming rule for a number of reasons. Number one the cost of new equipment would be astronomical...personell costs to keep recording library organized as well...and finally why do a majority of us have to comply with this ruling when it's only a few who are messing up the airwaves. I suggest monitoring those pirates.

Tim Ost